

5/31/18

Christine Woodworth named Chapin Woman's Club Woman of the Year

Dr. Christine Woodworth with her husband Steve.

At the May meeting, Chapin Woman's Club's newly installed president for the 2018-19 club year, Dr. Christine Woodworth was announced as this year's recipient of Woman of The Year. Chris spent her career of 32 years in public education as both a teacher on the elementary and secondary levels and as an administrator. Currently, Chris keeps active in the Chapin community, volunteering at We Care, in her church, Chapin United Methodist, organizing and hosting events for her Night Harbor homeowner's association, leading Bible Study, with the Club's many service projects, traveling and enjoying time with her husband, son and daughter-in-law, two grandchildren and many friends.

Chapin Woman's Club members count themselves very fortunate to have such an energetic, enthusiastic and dedicated woman representing them.